

Derby

Cathedral

Four Hares & Rainbow

Derby Cathedral

29th May- 09th July 2023

An exhibition of paintings by artist Michael Cook, pieces by lettering artist Elizabeth Forrest, and poems by Derby poet and writer, Tina Hook.

These moving and joyful works have been designed to relate to their surroundings in Derby Cathedral, as well as to Tina's words.

For further information and opening times
derbycathedral.org

About the exhibition

Derby poet and writer Tina Hook died in 2012, leaving artist Michael Cook four short poems about her pilgrimage to Orkney, on the understanding that they would one day form part of an exhibition.

Four Hares and a Rainbow is the result.

Creative Writing Workshops

Cavendish area, Derby Cathedral

Whether you're an accomplished writer, or you've never written anything except a shopping list before, join our relaxed, friendly creative writing workshop run by Chrissie Hall.

Using the exhibition to inspire us, we'll enjoy finding our own words, poetic or otherwise, to express our responses to it.

Everyone is very welcome to join us:

Saturday 10th June 10.30 -12.30

Wednesday 21st June 13.30 - 15.30

£15 (£7.50 concession)

*In support of the Hare Preservation Trust and Derby Cathedral.
Income will be split equally.*

For further information and to book, please visit derbycathedral.org/fourhares